

Using Synonyms for Said

Write your spelling words in order from quietest to loudest on this volume scale:

Now, write some spoken words into each of the speech bubbles. Then, under each speech bubble, write a line of accurately punctuated direct speech using the said synonym spellings.

Using Synonyms for Said

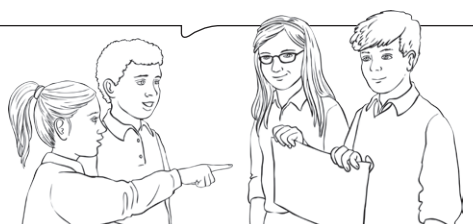

Now, write some spoken words into each of the speech bubbles. Then, under each speech bubble, write a line of accurately punctuated direct speech using the said synonym spellings.

A line drawing of a boy and a girl facing each other, both pointing their index fingers at the other. They appear to be in a heated argument. Above them is a large, empty speech bubble. Below the illustration are three horizontal lines for writing.

A line drawing of a boy whispering into the ear of a girl. The girl has her arms crossed and is looking slightly away. Above them is a large, empty speech bubble. Below the illustration are three horizontal lines for writing.

A line drawing of three children (two boys and one girl) looking at a piece of paper held by one of the boys. Above them is a large, empty speech bubble. Below the illustration are three horizontal lines for writing.