

The first thing I saw was its piercing amber eyes that sat far within the creature's hard, scaled skull. The eyes made it look fierce – I hoped it wasn't. Several small crystal growths sat atop its head, just above its thick, pointy ears.

A row of horns runs down the sides of each of its jaw lines. Its nose is wide and has two enormous nostrils and there's a small beard of yellow hair on its chin. Several sharp teeth poke out from the side of its mouth and show a glimpse of the terror hiding inside.

A broad neck rans down from its head and into a short body. The top is covered in radiant, blue skin and rows of small spike ran down its spine. Its bottom is covered in narrow scales and is coloured darker than the rest of its body.

Two huge legs carry its body and allow the dragon to stand proud. I could just see some terrifying wings grow starting from between its shoulders

Its thick tail ends in a curved talon and is covered in the same radiant skin as its body.
